Private hands-on Porcelain Workshop at Augarten Porcelain Manufactory

Vienna | Approx. 3 hours

Follow old traditions of workmanship and learn about how a hand painted pattern is developed. Your unique experience at this Austrian traditional business (it has been shared for more than 300 years), starts with a privately guided manufactory tour and a visit to the Porcelain Museum, illustrating the history of Vienna porcelain. Before starting with your hands on porcelain painting workshop, you enjoy a glass of champagne. During the workshop, one of the long-time painters of the Vienna Augarten Porcelain Manufactory will introduce you to the secrets of porcelain painting. You will paint your very own piece of Augarten, a small plate or a gift box. Afterwards the porcelain has to be fired and will be sent to your home address or delivered to your hotel in Vienna.

A Renaissance Palace just for you

Excursion from Vienna | Approx. 8 hours

Spend a day at the perfectly preserved Rosenberg Renaissance Palace including lunch with Count or Countess Hoyos, the owners of this historical landmark built in the 12th century. When you enter the gates of the oldest preserved Tilt Yard Europe's, the Count or Countess Hoyos personally greet you. After enjoying a glass of champagne with either of them, you enjoy a special guided tour through the Palace's premises. Following your exclusively guided tour, a delicious 3-course gourmet lunch is served in a special setting (depending on the weather). After lunch you can choose between historical Falconry or entering the world of roses:

Historical Falconry

The head falconer takes you to visit the aviary to meet the different birds “up-close” and explains the history of falconry. You will be able to take some very nice memorable pictures with some of the birds at special locations and you will be invited to see the historical falconry performance, followed by enjoying “afternoon tea” with the falconer.

World of roses and scents

Pauline Rochas, granddaughter of Maurice and Helene Rochas, joins us for lunch or at the end of lunch. She takes you to a private tour through the rose gardens of the palace grounds (depending on the time of the year and the weather) in order to lead you to her rose/scent laboratory where she gives you a special presentation of the world of scents. The highlight will be creating your own rose scent, which you will be able to take with you. At the end, she invites you to have “afternoon tea” with her at the special rose tavern at the castle ground.
