SIGHTS IN THE NEIGHBOURHOOD

Alexanderplatz is the most famous square in Berlin. Here you will find the renowned clock, which displays the current time in different countries around the world, and the 'Fountain of Peoples' Friendship', which was built in 1969. You can reach Alexanderplatz either on foot or by taking the underground (U2) starting at the station 'Spittelmarkt', located in close proximity to our hotel.

Checkpoint Charlie on the legendary Friedrichstrasse is only a ten minute walk from our hotel. Opposite of the famous former border crossing is the 'Wall Museum' which is open from 9:00 am till 7:00 pm on a daily basis.

Friedrichstrasse is one of Berlin's popular shopping areas with the famous Gallery Lafayette and is only a five minute walk away from our hotel.

Gendarmenmarkt is one of Europe's most beautiful squares. Here you can find the German Dome, the French Dome and the Concert hall, an architecturally harmonic and stunning ensemble. The Gendarmenmarkt is also located close by, only a ten minutes walk from our hotel.

Potsdamer Platz is the center of the contemporary Berlin with a wide range of restaurants, shops, theatres and cinemas. The famous square does not only attract tourists but also many locals. Potsdamer Platz is easily accessible with the underground (U2) within a few minutes.

Nikolaiviertel is one of Berlin's most famous attractions. The district locates a variety of café and restaurants which are located in medieval, cobble-stone alleys. Also it situates the Nikolai church, Ephraim Palace and the museum 'Knoblauchhaus' that rank among the city's most well-known sights. The Nikolaiviertel is within walking distance from our hotel.
